

Inwood U.S.A.

Inwood is the northernmost neighborhood on the island of Manhattan. It was principally Irish but now predominantly Dominican. It is working class and has a high crime rate.

Inwood contains the last stretch of primordial forest, as well as the last salt marsh, in Manhattan. Red-tailed hawks soar over its skies, as well as the occasional bald eagle.

Upstate Manhattan. It's where Kareem Abdul-Jabbar grew up. It's home.
